FROM THE SOUTH

Brethren

Thank you for letting me be your JW. I have already felt that support of the stewards and others as I begin this JW 2012 adventure. Our first meeting went off without issues. The Burns Night was very busy and nerve racking; not knowing if the people would come, the dinner will be enough. The dancers, pipers, presenters and partakers all should be thanked for marvelous work. I personally thank you all. One late night special gift must be acknowledged was from Bro. Wayne Capper, thank you. I write this news from weary eyes after all have gone home. We missed a few brethren the like of RWBro Roy and Bill. February will see the JW stretch his baking skills and see what St. Valentine can cook-up, arrange or buy. I am every so mindful of the all seeing eye of the IPJW John Kubinski and wondering, would this meet with his standards, oh to be like Bro. John
If you want something special for any particular month or an event planned, let me know.

Fraternally

Bro. Terry Murray

FROM THE WEST

Brethren,

A well done to our Junior Warden for a really enjoyable Robbie Burns Night.

Everyone had a wonderful time and our presenters did a marvelous job with their entertaining speeches.

W. Bro. Jimmy Annan was outstanding with the Address to the Haggis.

Please phone me if you know of any ailing or sick brothers or update me on their status.

Fraternally

Bro. John Kubinski

FROM THE SECRETARY

Brethren,

Well a new year has started so please get your dues in and lets have a great year as it looks like our JW has a few things up his sleeve.

LOST

Richard Woodhurst

TREASURER

Brethren,
Your lodge needs your 2012 dues so please get them in ASAP as the lodge needs funds to function.

MASTER'S NOTES

Brethren,

Well done to Bro JW Terry Murray, It was a magnificent night, to start with, good food and wine and topped off with good desert, a great and memorable evening indeed. A big thank you to all the Brethren who helped the JW to make the evening enjoyable and entertaining, namely W Bro Joe Bratton for the Selkirk Grace, W Bro James Annan address to the Haggis, MW Bro Hugh Young for the Immortal Memory, RW Bro Don Gillies for the Toast to the Lassies and from the Lassies Mrs. Dianne Gillies and lets not forget the Burns Club Singers, Dancers and Pipers who brought color and excitement to the evening.

Again thank you all

A quick reminder on February 27th, 2012 is the first degree night, all Officers and Bro's taking part please be ready for practice on Sunday the 26th of February at 9:00am. Be sure to inform the WM if you cannot make it to the practice.

Fraternally
